The Badge of Honesty

Is on every wrapper of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery because a full list of the ingredients composing it is printed there in plain English. Forty years of experience has proven its superior worth as a blood purifier and invigorating tonic for the cure of stomach disorders and all liver ills. It builds up the run-down system as no other tonic can in which alcohol is used. The active medicinal principles of native roots such as Golden Seal and Queen's root, Stone and Mandrake root, Bloodroot and Black Cherrybark are extracted and preserved by the use of chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce at Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet which quotes extracts from well-recognized medical authorities such as Drs. Bartholow, King, Scudder, Coe, Ellingwood and a host of others, showing that these roots can be depended upon for their curative action in all weak states of the stomach, accompanied by indigestion or dyspepsia as well as in all bilious or liver complaints and in all "wasting diseases" where there is loss of flesh and gradual running down of the strength and system.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes rich, pure blood and so invigorates and regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, and, through them, the whole system. Thus all skin affections, blotches, pimples and eruptions as well as scrofulous swellings and old open running sores or ulcers are cured and healed. In treating old running sores, or ulcers, it is well to insure their healing to apply to them Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve. If your druggist don't happen to have this Salve in stock, send fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and a large box of the "All-Healing Salve" will reach you by return post.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

BECKER CONFESSES.

Capt. McCafferty and the central office men in New York who have been working on the Elmhurst murder case yesterday returned to New York pretty well satisfied that the man who killed the fifteen-year-old Staffeldt girl in an open field within sight of eleven houses last Wednesday afternoon had been apprehended.

A charge of homicide will be made against Henry Becker, the suspect in the case, when he comes up for examination Wednesday in the Flushing Police Court. It is not believed, however, that he will ever be brought to trial, as he is regarded as a man of feeble intellect, and it is believed that he committed the crime in an insane frenzy due to his condition.

The officers came to this decision immediately after Becker admitted, while riding to Mrs. Emily Simonson's house in a carriage, that he had killed the girl. He was identified by Mrs. Simonson as the man with the white hat who washed his bloody hands at her pump about half an hour after the commission of the murder.

Becker then made a confession which fits in with all the detectives have found out about his movements on the day of the murder. He was taken to the field where the girl's body was found.

He told how he had struggled with the girl, and finally struck her with a stone on the back of the head to still her cries, and then, seizing the knife with which she had been digging dandelions, struck her twice with that weapon. He also went over his tracks through the cabbage patch, where he was seen by Engel, and explained that he had only met the second man, who he first alleged had committed the crime, at the gate to Mrs. Simonson's. They both went in and pumped water for each other to wash their hands.

A Hard Debt to Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off, "writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Little Girl Kills Cousin.

Inspired by the climax of a thrilling melodrama seen in a theater last week by herself and cousin, Lottie Dawson, 12 years old, killed her cousin, Verna Davis, aged 14 at the home of the former in Scranton, Pa., Saturday. The girls were close companions and always together.

They had tired of hearing their parents conversing down stairs, and went to an upper room, where they planned a trip together to Scranton's Luna Park. Going to a bureau to show her cousin the money she had for the trip, Lottie came across the father's revolver.

Instantly she said they would "play show" and rehearse the scene they had witnessed at the theater. Assuming the role of the villain, she called to her cousin:

"Hold! Stand back! Advance another step and you will die!"

Pointing the revolver and pulling the trigger there was a shot, and Verna fell dead.

The mothers of the girls both swooned as they hurried upstairs to learn what was wrong. The Dawson girl, frantic with grief, ran to her uncle's home, where the police found her. She was paroled in her uncle's care.

For stomach troubles, biliousness and constipation try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Many remarkable cures have been effected by them. Price, 25 cents. Samples free. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Gibson & Timberman.

Little Boy Kills His Mother.

Ernest Doll, five years old, shot his mother in the head at York Pa., yesterday, killing her instantly. The child is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Doll, of Airville, near York. The little boy had often seen his father load the gun, which he kept in the corner of the room. Yesterday the mother slipped out into the yard for the purpose of looking after some domestic duties. While absent from the room, the boy got hold of the gun and slipped a shell into it. He waited at the door, and when his mother appeared he said: "Look out, mama; I'll shoot you." The word was no sooner spoken than bang when the gun, and the whole load of shot passed through her head. The mother dropped dead at the boy's feet, who hardly realized what he had done.

Priest Murdered.

Henry Scherrer, a German householder, living on the third floor of a tenement, on west 37th street, New York, thought there was a dead cat in the room of two Greek or Armenian lodgers who had suddenly jumped their board bill on Wednesday last. He investigated, and in a trunk which they had left behind them he found the dead body of a man with priestly garments piled over it The body was later identified as that of Father Horan Caspar, an itinerant priest of the Armenian branch of the Orthodox Greek Church. After investigation, the police say that he was put in the trunk still alive, after being drugged, some time last Wednesday. They are holding one man for investigation, and they say that they are on the track of two more believed to be implicated in the murder. Robbery was the motive for the crime.

Let me mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Ironically of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptons only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free Book now. Dr. Shoop's Restorative sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

MONDAY EVENING, MAY 27, 1907.

THE WIDOW of the late President McKinley died at her home at Canton, O., yesterday afternoon. The death of Mrs. McKinley brings to mind sad chapters in the life of that lady. Thirty-six years ago, while in young womanhood, she was married to the late William McKinley. The latter was superintendent of a Sunday school and the subject of this notice a teacher. The young couple embarked upon the sea of life doubtless animated by the same roseate hopes and fancy's dreams which are natural to all. The pair was well-matched and thoroughly devoted to each other. Two children were born to them, and the first serious cloud to darken their home was the death of one after it reached its fourth year. The other subsequently sickened and died also, and before the keen edge of these bereavements had been blunted by time Mrs. McKinley became an invalid. She watched her husband emerge from the humble walks of life into positions of prominence until he reached the last rung of the ladder and had been proclaimed President of the United States. After he had filled one term and started upon another four years' course she was quoted as saying that she sighed for the time when her husband could lay aside the duties of his position and resume the quiet domestic life of previous years, so that she could enjoy his company as in younger days. Six years ago while Mrs. McKinley was making a tour of the southern country with her husband she became seriously ill and for a time her life was threatened. In September of the same year her husband was assassinated at Buffalo. This was the crushing blow from which she never recuperated, and it is said that from the time her consort was placed in the tomb until her death she had longed for the dissolution of her earthly tabernacle and a reunion with those gone before. Her prayers have at last been answered. We are told that "They who sow in tears shall reap in joy." The time has come for the fulfillment of this promise to Mrs. McKinley.

THE UNFORTUNATE conditions now prevailing in San Francisco are believed to be far more disastrous to that city than was the recent earthquake, and should no improvement be brought about in the near future timid capital will flee from the ill-fated place. Governor Gilleth is alive to the emergency, and is doing everything possible to restore San Francisco to its normal conditions. The recent strike, the resultant disorder, and the peculations of officials have in a measure paralyzed business, and are about to scare away what little enterprise was left after the terrible convulsion of nature which caused untold damage. The governor of California has been loath to call out troops, because he says such action will be a confession to the world that the city is unable to govern itself. He believes that with a strong committee of representative men, peace and order would be soon restored. He says conditions in San Francisco are intolerable. The city needs Eastern capital and Eastern credit. Under the present conditions it can get neither.

SEVEN CENTS on the hundred dollars of assessed values is all it will require next year to meet the running expenses of Rockingham county which seven cents pays the salaries of the judge and other county officers, provides jurors, pays election judges, registrars, electoral board and other incidental expenses of the county government. O, that people in some other counties and cities knew how to conduct their affairs as economically as do those of Rockingham.

TWO HUNDRED million dollars has been won and lost in the last 30 days in the craze of Chicago wheat speculation. Board of Trade brokers declared Saturday that these were conservative figures, although there is no way of actually compiling the totals of losses and gains. None of these winnings, it will be observed, came to the farmers who raised the wheat.

THE longest presidentiul campaign in the history of the country began its saturnalia of hard cider and raccoon skins with the nomination of the elder Harrison at Harrisburg in November, 1839. But the campaign of 1908 has already begun, and will proceed without interruption until the eve of the election, nearly eighteen months hence.

IT BEGAN raining last May when Luna Park was first opened and has continued with considerable regularity ever since. The opening of the park last Saturday night was attended by a downpour and rain has fallen since. The park managers had better make things right with the weather bureau officials. Try a few complimentaries.

A declaration by Franklin K. Lane, of Californir, another member to whom the question of criminal prosecutions had been delegated that "we have evidence that rebating has not ceased" in the same connection is regarded as significant.

DEATH OF MRS. McKINLEY.

At 1:05 o'clock yesterday afternoon Mrs. William McKinley who had been critically ill at Canton, Ohio, fell into the sleep that knows no waking. The transition from life to death was so peaceful and gradual that it was with difficulty that the vigilant physicians and attendants noted when dissolution came. There was no struggle—no pain.

The deceased was born at Canton, O., August 8, 1847, she having been a daughter of James A. Saxton, banker, who died 1887. She was cashier of the Stark County Bank, of which her father was president. She first met William McKinley while she was a teacher in the Presbyterian Sunday School at Canton, of which he was the superintendent. She was married to him January 25, 1871, in the Presbyterian church, Canton. Mrs. McKinley was the mother of two children, Kate born Christmas day, 1872, died June 1876; Ida, who lived only five months. From 1877, when Major McKinley first took his seat in Congress, for 14 years she and her husband spent most of their time in Washington. She was mistress of the White House from March 4, 1897, when her husband was inaugurated President, until he died in September, 1901.

After President McKinley's death she expressed a desire to join him and prayed day by day that she might die. Later, however, she frequently told friends she desired to live until the completion of the McKinley Mausoleum, which is the gift of the nation, and which is to be dedicated on Monument Hill September 30 next.

TRAGEDY IN FAIRFAX COUNTY.

In the same house and room, and virtually on the same spot where his wife and daughter both met tragic deaths, Silas Putman, fifty-two years old, formerly a watchman in the War Department, Saturday fired six shots into the body of Mrs. Emma Deavers, with whom he had lived for several years, and, turning the weapon on himself, sent the remaining bullet through his heart. His death was instantaneous, while his victim lingered nearly half an hour. The tragedy occurred at Putman's home at Munson's Hill, about two miles from Falls Church, about 9 o'clock Saturday night. In the house at the time of the shooting were the five children of Mrs. Deavers. Almost at the firing of the first shot one of the children, snatching a lamp from the table, flung it at the man, and turning, fled screaming from the house. Ruth, May, and Gertrude, the older children, when they saw their mother sink to the floor, with Putman standing above her firing shot after shot into the body, also ran from the house.

With rain pouring down upon their bare heads, the children ran to the home of Mayor John T. Payne, of Falls Church, and told of the tragedy.

The domestic conditions of the family, it is said, have been strained for some time. Three years ago Mrs. Putman, during a severe thunderstorm, was struck by lightning and killed in the same room in which the tragedy occurred Saturday night. Several years before this accident, Nellie Putman, eldest daughter of Putman, committed suicide in the same room. At the time of the girl's death, Putman, who declared that a neighbor had been responsible, armed himself and searched for his intended victim. He vowed that he would shoot him on sight, and the man, being warned by friends, left the county, and has never returned.

Shortly after the death of Mrs. Putman, Putman prevailed upon Mrs. Deavers to come and live at his house, offering to board with her and pay a stipulated sum each month, provided she kept the house in good condition. This agreement resulted in Mrs. Deavers moving into the Putman house, and at the same time Putman's children, of whom there is said to be three, left, vowing they would not live under the same roof with the woman.

Following the estrangement from his children Putman frequently engaged in altercations with his housekeeper, and at times, it is said, he even resorted to violence. On such occasions the children would go to neighboring houses and remain until matters at their home became more placid.

The crime was the outcome of long-continued disagreements between the couple, whose association, is so far as it is known to the residents of Falls Church, dated back to the time of their living in Alexandria.

Seven months ago they appeared at Falls Church and took up occupancy of the house on Putman's farm.

Ruth, twelve years old, and May, accompanied their mother to this city, Saturday. Here they saw Putman coming out of a saloon. He did not speak to Mrs. Beavers, but followed the three on horseback as they drove about the city. May asked her mother what Putman was following them around for, and Mrs. Beavers told her that he had been repeatedly asking her to marry him and that she had refused.

"He is jealous and is watching me to see if any man speaks to me," said the mother.

On the drive home Mrs. Beavers became more nervous. She told her little daughters that she knew death stood at her side. She begged them to remember her counsel and advice and told them if anything happened to go to their aunt, Miss Lizzie Beavers, who lives in Washington.

At Bailey's Crossroads, Putnam met them and followed them to the house. As they entered, he began to force a quarrel with Mrs. Beavers, who, in fear of her life, tried to pacify him. Putnam was plainly drunk. He snatched Mrs. Beavers' hat from the table, tore it to shreds, and burned it in the stove. Mrs. Beavers remonstrated and he struck her in the face. May snatched a carving knife from the table and sprang forward, while the other children huddled in the corner in terror.

With blazing eyes, little May faced the infuriated brute and told him that she would kill him if he struck her mother again. Putnam then drew his revolver, the same that eight years ago his daughter Helen had used to commit suicide in her room above, and pointed it directly in the face of the little girl. Her sisters say she did not move, but dared to stand unflinchingly before the muzzle of the revolver. Then the screams of the other children and her mother's cry, "Run, Mary, before he kills you," unnerved her and she turned and fled out of the door, crying that she was going to Mayor Payne's for assistance. Putnam fired as she ran, but the bullet struck the wall near the door.

He then turned on the woman, seized her by the arm and fired two shots, one of which entered her brain, the other going wild. Coolly he raised the revolver and shot himself through the temple. Excitement led the children to believe that more shots were fired, but investigation showed four empty shells in the revolver and one loaded cartridge.

Putnam claimed to be a direct descendant of Gen. Israel Putnam of revolutionary fame. For a long time he had been a constant sufferer from asthma and had decided that his ailment would result in consumption. He was despondent at times, and it is thought that in addition to domestic trouble this despondency dethroned his reason. Putnam was about 60 years old, Mrs. Beavers was 45.

The coroner's jury in the case of W. S. Putnam today rendered a verdict of murder and suicide.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, May 27.—The Corporation Commission today granted a charter to the Leon Automatic Fire Escape Company, whose principal office will be in Alexandria. The incorporators are B. K. Leon, K. Leon and R. F. Trutt, all of Washington. The minimum authorized capital is $50,000.

Uprising in China.

Canton, China, May 27.—The whole northeast section of the Province of Kwang-Tung, which this city is the most important port, is in open revolt. Thirty thousand members of the Triad Society, which started the uprising, are reported in arms. Scores of civil and military authorities have been assassinated and their homes burned. So far foreigners and missionaries have not been attacked.

Woog Kung, one of the principal towns of the Eping district, is the scene of the greatest activity of the revolutionists. The uprising originated there on Wednesday, but the news only reached here today. Wong Knog was seized by the rebels and all the officials murdered. Attacks were then organized on the homes of all the mandarins of the entire district.

Rebel divisions are reported to have been sent into Fokinn provinces to the northeast of Kwang-Tung, and an attack is planned on Chiachow, only a few miles from Amoy.

Admiral Li, with two warships carrying troops, left this afternoon for the uprising district, the scene of the disorders.

Numerous calls for assistance have been sent to the Viceroy, but as yet help has not arrived.

The Triad Society, which has instigated the uprising, is a secret society said to have 3,000,000 members. The general aim of the society is the overthrow of the Manchu dynasty, and the members are known as mischief makers everywhere.

Swatow, China, May 27.—A military relief expedition has been dispatched from here to Hong Kong to put down the rebellious Triads who have begun a campaign of assassination. British and German warships have also been dispatched from here along the coast to protect the interests of citizens of their respectives countries.

Reports here say that the revolutionists have not attacked the people generally, but have made war on the civil and military authorities. The colonel commanding the guards promptly mustered his forces and has started to the scene of the disturbances.

It is reported that the German mission at Lien Chow has been destroyed, but there is no confirmation.

All the police of Swatow are held in readiness for any emergency, either to put down Triads who may start trouble here, or to go to the assistance of the troops that have been dispatched. Chinese bankers are maintaining a patrol of the coast with steam launches.

Berlin, May 27.—Dispatches received here from China announce the destruction of the German mission at Lien Chow, China, but say the missionaries escaped. Pakhoi, near Lien Chow, is also reported to be affected by the Chinese uprising and the German gunboat Iltis has been dispatched there from Hong Kong. It is expected a British gunboat will also be sent to Pakhoi.

Lively Scene at Dinner.

London, May 27.—Developments today show that a lively scene was created at the dinner given by United States Ambassador Reid for the Duke and Duchess of Connaught Friday night by the wife of the Spanish ambassador to Great Britian, one of Mr. Reid's guests.

Just before the supper Mr. Reid asked the Duke of Wellington to "take in" the Spanish woman. He agreed, but having been smitten by the charms of another woman took the latter to supper, leaving the wife of the Spanish diplomat deserted. The latter flew into a rage and refused to go to the dining room.

Ambassador Reid was informed of the mix up and hurried up-stairs to find the Spanish woman in a towering passion. She declared that Spain had been insulted through the affront to herself, and announced her intention of going home immediately. All Mr. Reid's diplomatic tact was required to prevent the woman from carrying out this plan, but she finally yielded and Mr. Ried escorted her to supper himself. Many harsh criticisms are now being passed on the Duke of Wellington for his conduct.

Decried Ignoble Peace.

St. Paul, Minn., May 27.—Archbishop John Ireland in a memorial day sermon preached at the Cathedral yesterday to members of the G. A. R. and officers and enlisted men from Fort Snelling, decried ignoble peace and glorified a just war, and took the ground that nothing will so bring home to the people a sense of righteousness and awaken in them the spirit of disinterested self-sacrifice so necessary to the life of a great and high-minded nation. The archbishop spoke glowingly of peace and described the horrors of war, and then added, "Take men as they are, people as they are; preach to them justice and righteousness, but let them know that when justice and righteousness are trampled underfoot, war shall be waged in defense of justice and righteousness."

Blizzard in Michigan.

Detroit, Mich., May 27.—Heavy snow is reported through central and northern Michigan today. At several points above the straits the temperature has gone to two degrees below zero.

Attempts to Burn a Town.

Elkton, Md., May 27.—Systematic attempts to burn this town was made last night. Three fires were started at different times in the very heart of the town. The evidences of incendiarism were so noticeable that fire patrols were established. They discovered the two other blazes before they had gained much headway. It is believed the fires were started by thieves who hoped to be able to rob freely while the fire raged. There is little fire protection in Elkton, and had the fire once got a good start the consequences would have been disastrous.

Abe Hummel, the convicted lawyer in Blackwells Island, was put to work this morning weighing meats. During his leisure moments he will write a book.

Terrible End of Elopement.

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., May 27.—The terrible and unexpected end of an elopement came last night near Marlinton, when two unknown men held up the eloping couple and after tieing the man to a tree repeatedly assaulted the prospective bride. Their victim, a Miss Bird, daughter of a hotel keeper at Marlinton, is in a critical condition today. Miss Bird and her sweetheart, a barber named Gladwell, planned to come here to be married last night. They started to drive and in the midst of a dark woods were held up by the two strangers. Gladwell was firmly bound to a tree while the men made off with the girl.

The man finally managed to free himself and hurried back to Marlington where officers were found and a hunt was instituted. The men were found in the woods still holding their victim. When they were taken back to Marlinton a mob formed to lynch them, but the leaders were finally induced to give up the attempt.

Ppysicians say that if Miss Bird survives her awful experience her mind will probably be affected.

Turbulent Scene in Court.

Berlin, May 27.—Justices of the Berlin Tribunal are today recovering from fright given them which will probably result in a different arrangement of the court. Ten criminals were on trial and the proceedings had dragged on until near three in the morning. One of the Judges suggested that the two ringleaders be sentenced to 10 and 12 years imprisonment. With a howl of rage the entire ten hurdled the barrier and attacked the judge and advocate general. In a moment the court was in a tumult, the police and ushers interfered and clubbed the prisoners into subjection while the judges scurried to a private room for further consideration. At this moment the electric light failed and a cry was raised that a delivery of the prisoners was to take place. Immediately spectators were hurried out and the prisoners chained to their seats until the light was restored, when the judges came back and returned a verdict. It is probable that a prisoners' pen will be constructed in the court.

Snake in Bed.

Wakefield, Mass., May 27.—Miss Mary Kelley, a pretty teacher in the Hamilton school, of this place, is seriously ill as the result of what may have been intended for a joke, but more probably was the work of a rejected suitor or jealous rival. She was recovering from the grip when late yesterday an unknown man delivered at her door what appeared to be a box of candy. Miss Kelley opened it herself in bed and the moment the cover came off out leaped a long green snake which crawled about the bed frightening her into convulsions. After the snake was removed she suffered a relapse and today is in a serious condition. The police are trying to trace the box.

No Trouble from Wine Growers.

Paris, May 27.—Despite the fears that serious rioting was certain to attend the monster demonstration of wine growers at Perpignan yesterday, the day passed in comparative quiet. There was little to do for the troops that were hurried to the town. Fully 200,000 persons took part in the demonstration, but conservatives among their leaders dominated and were able to preserve order among the thousands. No attempt was made to carry out the threat made on Saturday to burn the City Hall or sack railroad stations if free trains were not furnished the wine growers.

Mr. and Mrs. Croker.

London, May 27.—Friends of Richard Croker here are confident that a reconciliation has been effected between the former Tammany leader and his wife. The main purpose of Mrs. Croker's visit to Great Britain, it is believed, is to meet her husband. She landed at Queenstown from the Caronia and is said to have been joined by Croker. For several years before Croker left the United States he had lived at the Democratic Club while his wife occupied their home. Friends tried several times to effect a reconciliation, but in vain.

Prices of Meat to Advance.

Chicago, May 27.—Meat prices show signs of jumping skyward this week unless the "beef trust" recedes from its recently announced intention to delay payment on certain of its live stock purchases until they have passed the government post mortem examination. The packers notified the commission firms that begining today they no longer would stand the loss on condemned cattle, and in order to protect themselves, they had found it necessary to refuse payment or "cow stuff" until it has passed the government inspectors.

The Murder of Father Haran.

New York, May 27.—It is now believed that Father Casper Haran, the Armenian priest whose dead body was found stuffed in a trunk in a house on west 37th street, was the victim of a political plot on the port of Servians and Armeninans, who have been planning the overthrow of the King of Servia. It was said that the alleged plot was forming in this country; that the priest had secured information of the plot and exposed it and that he was marked for death.

Woman Stabbed by Burglar.

Alliance, O., May 27.—In a feeble effort to save her home and aged husband from two masked burlgars early today Mrs. Thomas Hull, 72, gave battle to the men and was fatally stabbed. Hull dragged himself with crutches and cane through the mud and rain to the nearest farm house, half a mile away, and called help. He is seriously ill. The old couple are weathy. They have lived alone in an old farm house near Mechanicsville for a long time. The men entered their home through a window about 1 a.m. today. The thieves entered the bedroom, roughly aroused the aged people and demanded money. Mrs. Hull refused the demand. She got out of bed and attacked the two men. The men easily beat her off, assailed her with their fists and cut a deep gash in her scalp. She was left unconscious on the floor while the two ransacked the house. A man on horseback dashed into Alliance today and notified the police. Citizens volunteered a posse and are scouring the country.

New York Stock Market.

New York, May 27.—Brokers sold about 25,000 shares at the opening and there were a number of scattered selling orders in the market from local source. The combined supply caused a downward movement all through th first hour. Losses ranged from 1 to 3½ points being sustained nearly all in the active issues. The most important factor on the bear side of the market was the continued absence of demand.

The market was in a condition of semi-demoralization in the afternoon with the bears in almost undisputed control and more vigorous than they have been since the recovery from the March depression. Prices were marked down all around.

Senator Daniel.

In Lynchburg on Saturday night Senator Daniel authorized the announcement, that, although he is not a candidate for the presidential nomination on the democratic ticket, he is very grateful to his friends for the complimentary mention of him as a probability. Further than this he declined to go, stating that he does not feel called upon to give any additional definition of his attitude. His stand is one of quiet dignity—that of one who will neither deny nor affirm. His position, concisely put, is that his future, in so far as it has any connection with so great an honor as that of a presidential nomination, is entirely out of his hands and in the custody of his party and his friends.

A dispatch from Richmond says probably the most significant development in connection with the rumor that Thomas F. Ryan's friends will urge Senator Daniel for president, with a view later of grooming Ryan to succeed Daniel in the Senate from Virginia, occurred there Saturday, when Paul Morton, who is very close to Ryan, gave out a written interview, suggesting a southern man for president.

He said: "Why does not the solid South solidify on a candidate in the national convention as well as at the polls on election day? Why does not the South exert its full political power in convention and insist on a man for the democratic nominee like John W. Daniel, of Virginia; Judge White, of Louisiana, or Senator Culberson, of Texas? Personally, I am a republican, and a strong adherent of President Roosevelt; but I feel that northern democrats would be glad to take a southern man for their standard bearer, provided you gave them the right kind, and it is a mystery to many why the South is so united at the polls and so divided in convention."

There was a fierce snow and hail storm in Chicago, yesterday, which had all the features of a blizzard, except the low temperature. The hail was very heavy and continued for some time. The snow melted almost immediately.

President Visits Mt. Vernon.

President Roosevelt, Mrs. Roosevelt, and Miss Ethel Roosevelt, accompanied by the Postmaster General, Capt. Fitzhugh Lee and an orderly left Franklin street, near Royal, about 11:45 o'clock this morning for a horseback ride over the road to Mount Vernon. The palace car Mount Vernon with the party aboard left Washington at 11 o'clock with Superintendent Colvin, Conductor Crockett and Motorman Young in charge. The car reached this city on time and proceeded to Franklin street, where the President and those accompanying him disembarked and mounted the horses which had been brought down on the ferry steamer in charge of Captain Lee. About two hundred persons had assembled, among whom were Mayor Paff, ex-Mayor Strauss, Councilmen Spinks and Marshall. The President and his party were soon proceeding westward on Franklin street, and upon arriving at Patrick street turned south toward their objective point. They will return to this city and arrive at Franklin and Royal streets at 4:30 where they will take the "Mount Vernon" for Washington. Many persons were on the streets as the President's car passed down King and Royal streets, all anxious to get a look at the executive.

The President and his party ran into the storm which came up soon after they left here and took shelter in a farm house a short distance below this city. Later they proceeded to Mount Vernon.

Political.

A dispatch from Richmond says: Conflicting reports are coming here from the Eighth congressional district. The fight for the nomination is becoming more and more exciting. Each of the four condidates insists that he will win, and that the others are engaged in a desperate effort to prevent being the last man in the running. Neither candidate will concede that the other has a ghost of a show. Friends of the aspirants are talking the same way. There is some waging of money on the contest, and each man has his following in his own section. The political element here inclines to the belief that Mr. Carlin will win the nomination. It is no secret that Mr. Carlin is the one candidate who stands "ace high" with the present political regime in Virginia, all the others being aligned with the faction which went out of power when Gov. Montague laid down the cares of office. So far as can be ascertained none of the officials of the State is taking any part in the campaign, but it is accepted as a fact that if Gov. Swanson or Senator Martin had a vote it would go to the gentleman from Alexandria.

Ordination.

Bishop A. M. Randolph, of the Diocese of Southern Virginia, in Norfolk yesterday ordained Rev. J. M. B. Gill to the priesthood in St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church. At the same ordination service Mr. Myron Marshall was ordained to the diaconate. Mr. Gill is the present rector of All Saints' Protestant Episcopal Church, Park View. Mr. Marshall, who is the son of Capt. R. C. Marshall, is a student at the Theological Seminary, near this city.

At the Pro Cathedral in Washington, yesterday, Messrs. Charles Holmead and G. F. Blake, of Washington, deacons, were ordained to the priesthood and Mr. R. Lee Browning to the diaconate. All of them are from Washington and students at the Episcopal Theological Seminary near this city. The ordination was by Bishop Satterlee. Mr. Holmead was presented by Rev. Dr. S. A. Wallis, of the Seminary, and Messrs. Blake and Browning by Dean Brown, of the Pro Cathedral.

The Wright Case.

As heretofore stated Mr. James E. Clements will probably go to Richmond tomorrow to present to Gov. Swanson a petition asking him to commute to life imprisonment the sentence in the case of Joseph Thomas, alias John Wright, colored, who is condemned to be hanged in Alexandria county, next Friday, charged with the assault on Miss Mabel Risley, now Mrs. Forrest Gooding, last September. A counter petition, asking the governor to let the law take its course, has already been forwarded to Richmond. At the office of the governor it is said that he had gotten one or two letters from individuals asking him to commute the sentence. Attorney General Anderson, who represented the State when the case came up in the Supreme Court, which acted adversely to the accused, says that there is not the slightest doubt as to the guilt of Wright.

Memorial Services.

Belle Haven and Alexandria councils, Junior Order United Americans, held memorial services yesterday in honor of the memory of the deceased members of the order. The two councils assembled in the afternoon in Sarepta Hall and marched to the Methodist Protestant cemetery where the ceremonies took place. Rev. G. I. Humphreys, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church, delivered the memorial address, and Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of Grace Episcopal Church, participated in the services.

Funeral.

The funeral of William J. Moore, who died at his home near Franconia, Fairfax county, Thursday, took place Saturday afternoon from his late home. The deceased was a member of R. E. Camp of Confederate Veterans of this city. Rev. J. Rowe, of Baltimore, officiated, and the burial service of the camp was read at the grave by one of the members. Commander William A. Smoot, First Lieut. Commander W. W. Sherwood, Adjutant Charles S. Taylor, and Frank J. Davidson of R. E. Lee Camp, attended the funeral.

Scalded.

Mr. Harry Richards, who is employed as an engineer at the Alexandria Steam Laundry, was quite painfully scalded this morning about the face and right arm by the blowing out of a boiler plate. While not seriously hurt, Mr. Richards will be incapacitated for several days.

Personal.

Mrs. Raleigh F. Luckett and her sister, Miss Lollie Harlow, have returned from a visit to Baltimore and Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Carlin, at their pretty home on the Potomac, a few miles below this city, Saturday afternoon entertained the members of the Woodlawn Farmers' Club and their families at a planked shad dinner. The guests were entertained with music, short trips on the river in Mr. Carlin's power launch, and in other ways.

It is understood that Mr. F. F. Marbury will soon become associated with Mr. DeWilton Aitcheson in the coal and wood business.

Mrs. Margaret Sherwod, of 523 Queen street, left this morning for Chadbourn, N. C., accompanied by her niece, Miss Alice H. Brown, with whom she will make her future home.

Mrs. C. R. Howard has returned to her home in Fredericksburg from a visit to relatives in Alexandria.

Mrs. William W. Herbert has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. George D. Brooke, at Cumberland, Md.

Mrs. Stewart Jamieson has returned from a visit to friends in Trenton, N. J., and New York city.

Mrs. Carroll W. Ashby has returned from a visit to her brother, Mr. Percy Lumley, at Corocons, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. William Worth Smith have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lucy Montgomery Smith, to Dr. Samuel Warwick Price, of West Virginia. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride-elect, Cedar Hill, near Broad Run, Va., Saturday evening June 1, at half after 8 o'clock.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Edward Johnson, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was fined $2 50.

Lee Jones, colored, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was fined $5.

James Winfield, Horace Harris, James Burrill and Slem Clarke, all colored, charged with gambling, were fined $1 each.

Reading Contest.

The annual reading contest at the Episcopal High School, near this city, was held on Saturday night. There were eleven entries and the contest was considered one of the closest and best ever held at the school. The winners were Douglass B. Williams, of West Virginia, and Mann Page, of Danville. The judges were Dr. R. M. Slaughter, and Messrs. D. H. Lewis, T. N. Lawrence, Z. T. Vincent and W. G. McDowell.

The annual debaters' contest will be held tonight with nine entries.

Crapshooters Arrested.

The usual Sunday afternoon round-up of crap shooters resulted yesterday in the arrest of Charles Sorrell, white, and James Winfield, Slem Clark, Horace Harris, James Mason, and James Burrell, colored, charged with shooting crap. Policemen Jones and Roberts made the capture of the gamblers north of the old canal basin. Sorrell and Mason failed to appear in the Police Court this morning and forfeited their collateral. The others were fined $1 each.

Flower Thieves.

A lot owner in Bethel Cemetery who visited that place yesterday morning noticed that someone had pulled up three geraniums by the roots from the grave of his little child and carried them off. There is a chronic complaint on the part of lot owners in cemeteries of the depredations of vandals who invade those enclosures for the purpose of stealing flowers from graves. It is hoped that some of the thieves will be identified and examples made of them.

Wind, Rain and Hail.

A heavy rain fell in this city and vicinity between 12 and 1 o'clock today. Some hail mingled with the rain and there was some vivid lightning and heavy thunder. In the northern section of the city the ground was covered with hail stones and some damage was done to fences and trees by the high wind.

Yesterday.

Many people were on the streets yesterday notwithstanding the gloomy and threatening weather. A large number of visitors from Washington were in the city and the ferry steamer and electric trains transported many passengers. Luna Park was fairly well patronized during the day.

Banking Laws Defective.

In connection with the investigation of the affairs of the Southern Interstate Bank, attention is called to alleged defects in the Virginia banking laws. John A. Lamb, counsel for the protesting stockholders, makes the following statement. "The present law is defective, for the reason that a corporation, to conduct a banking business, can be formed with capital as small as $1, or as large as may be determined by the incorporators. And this bank could then conduct business without any of this stock being paid for, and, therefore, without any tangible or real capital.

"To illustrate: Five totally irresponsible persons could apply to the corporation commission for a charter, and upon payment of the specified tax, the commission would be compelled to grant the charter, and these five persons could proceed to conduct a banking business without having a dollar's worth of paid-up stock.

"In my opinion, the statute should be so changed as to require the incorporators to have at least its minimum capital stock paid in full. This is true of insurance companies under our statute, and the law should be so amended as to apply to banks. Another thing we need is a state bank examiner. The system of having the national banks examined has proven beneficial to the banks and a protection to the stockholders and depositors."

Since the strike of the machinists in the railroad shops of the Erie Railroad was declared last week the company has been receiving applications, it says, from many competent machinists and it was announced this evening that 500 men have been secured in place of the 700 who went on strike, and will be distributed to-morrow through the seventeen repair shops between Chicago and Jersey City.

Everybody's Magazine for June has been received from the Ridgeway Co., New York. In "Roosevelt on Nature Fakirs" the President delivers a vigorous attack on certain well-known animal writers. "The Chest of Overcapitalization" tells how stock-watering is done, and of its injury to the people. "The tragedy of the Released Convict" is an impressive article, and "It has to Come in America" will meet with wide response. "Making an Individual of the Indian" is of interest and authority and an appropriate reminiscence called "Commencement" is contributed. A serial and eight short stories by well-known writers give excellent fiction.

The Philadelphia Record.

To those who would gain practical knowledge, the columns of the Philadelphia Record afford one of the cheapest methods of procuring an education.

No man who desires to be well informed in business life should not miss this interesting series. Order the paper of your newsdealer in advance to be sure of getting a copy, or write the Philadelphia Record, 917 Chestnut street.

"UP TO DATE"

The American Woman's Watchword.

CENTURIES AGO the barbarian roamed the forests and mountains, using flint to light his fires; quite proper then, but nowadays who wants to be a barbarian?

In ye old colonial period the spinning wheel was a most important factor. At present it is but a relic. Imagine yourself making a homespun suit for your husband.

Why then continue the barbarous use of gasoline or oil or coal, thereby risking your life? Why stick to the old stage coach method of using coal and wood stoves? Don't go back to the spinning wheel times. Be modern. The cry in all ages has been "Do as others do," which means that nowadays your fellow creatures adopt the simplest methods of living with the least energy. They are all getting the Estate Gas Range habit. Do likewise.

The Imperial Rolling Window Screens

Can be put in by any one who can drive four simple screws. The entire frame work is of handsomely enameled metal, especially treated so that it can be kept in place all winter and serve as weather stripping. They are adjustable to fit any window and all sizes are kept in stock constantly. The Imperial will not rust in any climate and is always graceful and pretty and the screen is protected when not in use. It is inside the room. Why bother with old fashioned, clumsy rusty screens that pinch your fingers when you can buy Imperial Rolling Window Screens for about the same price.

Constipation

Baked sweet apples, with some people, bring prompt relief for Constipation. With others, coarse all-wheat bread will have the same effect. Nature undoubtedly has a vegetable remedy to relieve every ailment known to man, if physicians can but find Nature's way to health. And this is strikingly true with regard to Constipation.

The bark of a certain tree in California—Cascara Sagrada—offers a most excellent aid to this end. But, combined with Egyptian Senna, Slippery Elm Bark, Solid Extract of Prunes, etc., this same Cascara bark is given its greatest possible power to correct constipation. A toothsome Candy Tablet, called Lax-ets, is now made at the Dr. Shoop Laboratories, from this ingenious and most effective prescription. Its effect on Constipation, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Bad Breath, Sallow Complexion, etc., is indeed prompt and satisfying.

No griping, no unpleasant after effects are experienced, and Lax-ets are put up in beautiful lithographed metal boxes at 5 cents and 25 cents per box.

Father Kills Son.

Dominick Zizza, 23 years old, was found dead in bed in New York yesterday by his mother, his head having been crushed by blows from an axe which was on the floor beside the bed. On the strength of Mrs. Zizza's story her husband, Antonio Zizza, was arrested. The mother said that her son was the sole support of the family, her husband not having worked for sometime. Father and son frequently quarreled, the father demanding money and the son refusing it. Antonio, his wife said, had often threatened to kill the boy. She left the tenement in which they lived for a short time early yesterday, leaving her son asleep and her husband in the kitchen. When she returned the husband was gone and when she went to wake her son for breakfast he was dead.

Sore Nipples.

Any mother who has had experience with this distressing ailment will be pleased to know that a cure may be effected by applying Chamberlain's Salve as soon as the child is done nursing. Wipe it off with a soft cloth before allowing the babe to nurse. Many trained nurses use this salve with best results. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Gibson and Timberman.

Miss Vongilder fell in a trance during a recent holiness meeting and remained in that condition until Thursday. She is able to converse in the deaf mute language, and tells a strange story of having been to heaven during her long trance. Thousands of curious persons have called to see her.
